*All our archival CD sets come with a duplicate set of CD's for your peace of mind. Each CD set will contain all of your images, for which you have complete copyright. The images will be both low resolution (for you to be able to email friends or load to a website) and high resolution (for you to be able use in the future for printing your own photographs or to send to a professional printing service).

*As mentioned in the basic package ideas above, we can produce stylish extras such as photobooks or canvas prints. Just drop us a line to discuss these and other ways to display your images and see how best we can reflect what you want your wedding photographs to look like.
